ASK4 GUEST WIFI TERMS AND CONDITIONS

INTRODUCTION

These terms and conditions apply to your use of the guest Wi-Fi service provided by us ("Service"). They set out the conditions on which you can access and use the Services and content that is made available to you through the Internet.

In these terms and conditions "us", "we" or "our", means the member of the ASK4 group set out at the end of these terms, and the owner or manager of the premises where the Service is provided.

You agree to comply with these terms and such other requirements of use as may be notified to you by us while you are using the Service.

By using and/or activating the Service and/or clicking the accept button on the login/registration page you agree to be bound by these terms. If you do not agree to these terms, you should not use the Service.

OUR SERVICE

We will always try to make the Service available, but it may be temporarily unavailable for maintenance, or for other reasons that are outside of our control.

Any advertised speed for the Service is not guaranteed as speeds may be affected by a number of factors outside of our control such as the specification of your device, the location of your device, interference of other devices, the construction of the building and the number of devices connected to the Service at any one time.

We do not warrant that the Service is fault free or fit for any particular purpose, or that our system is secure.

YOUR DEVICES

You must provide all the hardware and software needed to access and use the Service. You are responsible for ensuring your equipment is compatible with the Service and your device must be wireless enabled.

The availability and performance of the Service may be subject to your device's memory, storage and other limitations.

We reserve the right to limit the number of devices and the period of time during which each device can be connected to the Service. These limitations will be set out on the login/registration page. You must not engage in any activity to attempt to circumvent such device or time limits.

The Service may not be compatible with or support the use or connection of connected devices such as wireless speakers or printers or the use of TV casting devices.

YOUR USE OF THE SERVICE

You are required to use the Service solely for your own personal use in accordance with the Acceptable Use Policy below. You agree to use the Service diligently and correctly and you agree not to use the Service for any purpose that is unlawful, prohibited by any applicable law, regulation or legislation, or that may infringe the rights of others. You must refrain from any action that may be technically harmful to the Service or its users.

You may allow other people to use a device that is connected to the Service. However, you shall remain responsible for their use of the Service.

You should at your own expense ensure that your devices are appropriately protected from unauthorized access by third parties and have appropriate anti-virus software installed.

USE BY MINORS

By using the Service, you confirm you are at least 18 years old or have parental permission to use the Service.

Parents and/or legal guardians of minors are reminded that the Service allows access to content or services that may not be appropriate or that may be prohibited for minors and it is their sole responsibility to control and decide on what may or may not be appropriate content or services for minors under their care.

Our liability or any loss not excluded under the paragraph above shall to the fullest extent permissible by law be limited to the damage reasonably foreseeable at the time of the conclusion of the Agreement.

Nothing in this agreement excludes or limits our liability for:

- wilful intent or gross negligence;
- for damage resulting in injury to life, limb or health; or
- for maliciously concealed defects.

Except as set out in these terms, all conditions, warranties, guarantees and representations are expressly excluded to the fullest extent permissible by law.

You agree to indemnify us against any claims, demands, actions, liabilities, costs or damages arising out of your use of the Service (including any infringement or alleged infringement of any other parties' intellectual property rights in any manner and/or any material that you access or make available using the Service), or any breach of these terms.

We reserve the right to suspend and/or block your access to the Service in the event of detecting uses of the service in breach of these terms. We will try where appropriate to give you reasonable notice or warning before we do this. However, we may immediately and without notice suspend and/or block your access to the Service where there is a real risk of loss or harm to us or our other customers (for example, where there is a reasonable suspicion of fraud or other abuse).

The duration of our agreement is limited to the time in which you remain connected to the Service.

GENERAL

If any part of these terms or the Acceptable Use Policy is found by a court to be unreasonable or inapplicable, the other parts will continue to apply.

CHANGES TO THESE TERMS

These terms and the Service may be amended at any time. If we make a change that is to your material detriment (for example the Service becomes chargeable) we will ask you to sign-up to the Service again and accept the new terms by clicking the accept button on the login/registration page.

We may make other changes to these terms and the Services that are not to your material detriment by updating this webpage. The use of the Service after the change shall be deemed to be acceptance of the changes.

These terms and all matters arising from or in connection with them shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law provided that if you are a consumer and have your habitual residence in the EU, you additionally enjoy the protection afforded to you by mandatory provisions of the law of your country of residence.

We both agree to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England & Wales, which means that you may bring a claim to enforce your consumer protection rights in connection with these terms in England or in the EU country in which you live.
